access to care

recorded medical history symptoms

sex

socioeconomic background

Clinicians select tests and diagnoses gender perceived race

perceived behavioral risk factors cognitive biases

Clinicians learn from present understanding of disease

Patient encounter is added to future data

Researchers summarize data into future evidence