sex
access to care recorded medical history symptoms gender socioeconomic background perceived race cognitive biases perceived behavioral risk factors

Clinicians select tests and diagnoses

Clinicians learn from present understanding of disease

Patients select how and when to seek care

Patient encounter is added to future data

Researchers summarize data into future evidence